

Rule 2091-1. Attorneys - Withdrawals. No appearance by an attorney may be withdrawn in any case or proceeding except by leave of court after notice served on the client and parties in interest entitled to notice; provided, however, that counsel for a creditor not a party to any pending contested matter or adversary proceeding may withdraw his or her appearance without court order by filing a notice of withdrawal as counsel, stating the name and mailing address of the client, and serving copies of the notice on the client, the debtor, the trustee, and their counsel.
